ORGANISATION, MAP AND COURSES:

Individual start according to start draw, start interval 1 minute.

Course setter: Lauri Sild

Preliminary course lengths:

M21, M18, M16 – 2,5 km

M35, N21, M50 - 2,0 km

N16, N18, N35, N50, N60, M60 - 1,7 km

SportIdent punching system used in all classes. SI-card rent 1 EUR

TERRAIN:

Competition terrain is Sõmerpalu borough and suburban forest in its surroundings. Runnability mostly very good. Irregular location of buildings, water bodies and height differences create good conditions for planning route choice legs. Terrain is mainly dry.

MAP:

Sõmerpalu sprint map (2011022). Scale 1:5000, contour interval 2,5 meetrit. Drawn by Juozas Smalinskas and Markus Puusepp. Maps are printed and sealed in plastic bags.

SHOWERS:

Warm indoor shower at the competition centre.

PROHIBITED AREAS:

According to competition map. According to the rules of sprint orienteering, following objects are prohibited to cross. Violators will be disqualified.

HAZARDS:

- Streets on the map have very little traffic during the time of competition, but they are open for traffic – watch out while crossing streets/roads!
- Some minor objects in the terrain (like outdoor laundry drying facilities, playgrounds) can be dangerous for runners if not noticed. Most dangerous spots will be marked appropriately on the maps and in the terrain with plastic ribbons in order to avoid collisions.

WARM-UP AND START:

Pre-start 2 minutes. There is a special limited area for warm-up in competition centre. Start is located in immediate neighbourhood of the competition centre.

FINISH AND COOL-DOWN AREA:

Finish is located in competition centre. Competition maps will be collected at finish until last start. Organizers expect all participants to follow fair play rules – giving any information about course and map to not yet started competitors is prohibited!

Cool-down area is same as warm-up area.

PRIZEGIVING:

Prize giving in competition centre after all results are clear. Prizes to the three best in all classes. Prizes are granted by Sõmerpalu parish.

PARKING

Free of charge at the competition centre.
